ENDURING BELIEFS OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

Unit 3 – The Church and Its Teaching

We end the quarter with a unit that discusses the origin of the church, which is the continuation of Jesus' ministry to announce the kingdom of God. The followers of Jesus begin with a trivial number of people, but Christ's chosen disciples become pillars of the early church, responsible for thousands of converts in a matter of months. The church has regular practices that sustain the memory of Jesus' life, death and resurrection. And the church learns to gather on "the Lord's Day" to sing hymns to Christ, and to praise His holy name. The church becomes the place where Christians meet the physical and financial needs of others, just as Jesus would have them do.
