SOCIAL TEACHING OF THE CHURCH

Unit 1 – Fulfilling Our Obligations to Neighbors

Christians throughout history have faced a variety of social, political, and relational circumstances. They faced persecution and martyrdom, suspicion and prejudice. But in all times and places, the gospel of Jesus is relevant and timely – supplying believers with a new perspective on earthly realities and with practices of faithful living. In the first unit, we learn what it means to live as exiles in the world, as people who have to examine our personal habits on a daily basis. Our actions are on full display for the world to see. Others will look to us to catch a vision of the kingdom of God, as we await the day that, according to the poetic vision of Isaiah 2, all nations shall put aside the sword to approach the mountain of God.
